Note:

- The evening classes for CSQS are a “Stand-Alone” course, the weekend revision classes are charged separately. It will be beneficial for you to attend weekend revision classes in preparation for the examinations. Revision classes are also available to students who haven’t attended the evening classes.
- Extra weekend class dates are included in the evening class fee. It is essential that you attend these extra weekend classes.
- The course application deadline is 15th February 2019. Revision applications will be accepted after this date.
- You will find the course fees and terms & conditions on the second page of the KCB-ICSA course application form.
- Applied Business Law, Financial Reporting & Analysis and Chartered Secretaries Case Study classes will not run this semester at KCB due to the upcoming changes to this Programme.

Students are reminded that it is their own responsibility to ensure that:

- All fees are paid before lectures start at the beginning of the term.
- Class registers are signed.
- Registration with ICSA for membership, examinations and exemptions are completed before the given deadlines. The ICSA registration and examination entry closing date is 1st April 2019 - <https://www.icsa.org.uk/>
- Course books are purchased from ICSA before the start of classes.
