* Additional optional classes for Interpreting Financial & Accounting Information will be held on 2 of the following dates: 21st Feb, 14th Mar & 18th Apr. The 2 dates will be decided in class. These classes are not compulsory and will cover Preparation of Financial Statements and more detailed calculations on Investment Appraisal Methods. These are not needed for passing the examination but will reward students who wish to deepen their knowledge of the subject.

Note:

- Weekly class registration does not include the weekend revision classes. The weekend revision classes are charged separately. It will be beneficial for you to attend the weekend revision classes in preparation for the examinations. Revision classes are also available to students who haven't attended the weekly classes.
- It is essential that you attend the Interpreting Financial & Accounting Information compulsory weekend classes if registered for this module.
- The course application deadline is 12th February 2021. Revision applications will be accepted after this date.
- You will find the course fees and terms & conditions on the second page of the KCB-ICSA course application form.

Students are reminded that it is their own responsibility to ensure that:

- All fees are paid before lectures start at the beginning of the term.
- Class registers are signed (or for online classes ensure that your name is visible so that you can be marked as present).
- Registration with ICSA for membership, examinations and exemptions are completed before the given deadlines. The ICSA registration and examination entry closing date is 23rd March 2021 - <https://www.icsa.org.uk/>
- Course books are purchased from ICSA before the start of classes.
